Editorial Information

CHEMICAL REVIEWS is published by the American Chemical Society to provide authoritative critical reviews and comprehensive summaries of recent research in all aspects of chemistry.

The publication of reviews in various fields is scheduled about a year in advance. The Editor welcomes suggestions for timely reviews. All prospective authors should read Suggestions to Authors of Articles for Chemical Reviews in Chem. Rev. (first issue of each volume) and follow the procedure for obtaining preliminary approval before preparing the manuscript. Uninvited manuscripts will be examined by the Editorial Board but are placed at the end of the prearranged schedule.

Manuscripts for publication should be submitted to the Editor, Dr. Josef Michl, at his University of Colorado address. Include a signed ACS copyright status form, a copy of which appears in the January/February issue.

Correspondence regarding accepted papers and proofs should be directed to the Journals Department at the address below.

The American Chemical Society and its Editors assume no responsibility for the statements and opinions advanced by contributors.

Registered names and trademarks, etc., used in this publication, even without specific indication thereof, are not to be considered unprotected by law.
